What's happening in April

Drum circles are back!

How exciting we are now back to full capacity for drum circles. April 5th is our first drum circle of spring. We will be offering drum circles twice a month. HOW EXCITING.

Aprils drum circles are in person April 5 and April 19 from 7pm till 9pm often we go over as the excitement to share our experience in the Shamanic world of journey. Plan for 3 journeys.

April 5 we journey to the bear, as spring is awakening all the animals we welcome the bear. learn how to tap into that bear energy, learn about bear energy!

April 19 we journey to our power animal as well experience the upper world where the angels are.

Where you will have access to all our teaching tools, videos, and lessons. Schedule your own appointments and much more. On line and in person, has just gotten so much much better.

Can't attend an in person event no worries we are live streaming so you can join from home.

some wonderful classes we will be launching on this platform are:

power animal teachings, 21 day earth count, Great teachers, owning your personal power, the alchemy of the medicine wheel, and much more. our new stepping in and stepping up 3 year teachings where you step into the world of shamanic healing.

FEELING LOST, INSURE WHERE TO TURN.

Shamanic healing may be your answer through the drum you can begin to explore, the many layers of self. Getting to the core of the issue and then learning to move through that healing. Personal one of one sessions in person or on line are available through zoom.

Step into your magnificent ability to connect to past lives, and your personal book of life, with the aid of your power animals, to navigate this healing path.
